

French photographer Bernard Rouffignac is currently working on the creation of a book entirely dedicated to the world of Bridge and Bridge players. He focus on the human aspects of this game as well as its surroundings.

It will be edited by Feeling Book Editions and its publication is planned for september 2008.

Due to the importance of this exceptional event, the Bermuda Bowls 2007 championship may also be the subject matter of an additional book including the portraits of the players, their champions, the key individuals surrounding the event, the atmosphere reigning in Shangai and the backstage of the competition.

The publication is scheduled for the end of november 2007.

Bernard Rouffignac, among other works, has published a book of photographs around the subject of Gentlemen Drivers in 2006 and just completed a book about the European Parliament after having followed with his camera this institution for one year.

This book will be published by Feeling Book
